Spring Classes 2018

Heart Bead's Basic Wirework Class...

Saturday, March 24th, 10am to Noon-ish...

This class teaches the basic wire looping & wrapping techniques needed to make everything from earrings to chain necklaces and beyond! As time permits, we will cover earring and linked necklace design aspects, and any specific project questions you bring. Basic materials included in the $30 fee.

Crystal Infinity Seed Bead Bracelet Class

Saturday, April 7th, 10am to Noonish... Technically called a flat spiral stitch, this project class teaches you how to create a bracelet featuring seed beads, Czech glass and crystal glass beads. The three sizes of beads wind together to create a beautifully patterned bracelet in your choice of colors. All materials are provided in the $40 class fee.

Ladder-Wrap Bracelet Class...

Saturday, April 14th, 10am to Noon-ish

This project-based class teaches you how to make those trendy multi-wrap bracelets you see in stores. Create a double-wrapped version of this popular style bracelet with a button closure in your own color palette. Techniques can be adapted for any length bracelet or type of bead you want to use. All materials are included in the $40 class fee.

Heart Bead's Pearl Knotting Class... Saturday, April 28th, 10am to Noonish...

This class teaches the traditional method of stringing pearls with knots in between each pearl. In this class, we will use silk beading cord and tweezers to precisely place knots between beads of any size. The class fee includes Pearls, Silk Cord, Knotting Tweezers, and Findings. All students will have a finished bracelet at the end of class to take home. Class Fee $40.

Every Class Participant receives a 10% Discount Coupon. Payment is required to register and hold your class space.
